TEAM NEWS

LORENZO CONFIDENT OF CONTINUING PODIUM RUN

Indianapolis was the first time this season that Jorge Lorenzo hasn't finished in the top two, but the Spaniard retains his impressive record of being on the podium at every race in 2010. "By the third lap [at Indy] I was tired and not able to lap the same as in practice" he commented last Sunday. "But in Misano we will come back again. I love it, and finished second in the last two years so it is a good track for us".

PEDROSA RIDING HIGH AFTER THIRD WIN OF 2010

Dani Pedrosa's emphatic victory at Indianapolis was his third of the season, a milestone for the Spaniard and one that leaves him hopeful of continuing his impressive form that leaves him second in the championship. "I crossed the barrier of two wins a season so I'm very happy. I hope to keep this rhythm now and have more good results. Misano is a circuit I like; it is always quite fast but we have to work hard on setup there from Friday."

CONFIDENCE BOOST STRENGTHENS SPIES

The last grand prix was significant for Ben Spies as he recorded his first pole, had his highest MotoGP finish and was confirmed as a Yamaha factory rider in 2011. "It gives me a lot of confidence to know what's happening next year and that Yamaha want me. It doesn't just take the pressure off, it makes you believe in yourself more too. The result on Saturday and Sunday in Indianapolis came from the confidence of the factory ride."

FACT

American riders have won more times than any other nation at a Grand Prix held at the Misano circuit; a total of six in the circuit's 13 appearances. It has been won by Italian riders five times and by Australians twice.

BRIDGESTONE MOTORSPORT ROUND-UP

F1 Lewis Hamilton won a rain-affected Belgian Grand Prix and took the championship lead after a commanding drive in conditions that started damp before becoming fully wet. After a safety car period when Fernando Alonso spun and his car lay stranded on the circuit, Mark Webber was 1.5seconds behind Hamilton and Robert Kubica took third, a further 1.9seconds back.

GP2 Pastor Maldonado won the first of two GP2 Series races at the Spa Francorchamps circuit to extend his lead of the title race with only two races remaining. He is 27 points clear of second-placed Sergio Perez, who won the second race of the weekend. Dani Clos is third overall, a further 17 adrift.

IndyCar Dario Franchitti took victory at the Chicagoland Speedway on the evening of Saturday 28 August, round 14 of the 17 race series. Franchitti finished just 0.04seconds ahead of Dan Wheldon to close to just 23 points behind series leader Will Power. Marco Andretti took the final step of the podium.
